CcELIS is a web based resource which provides landowners with an easy to follow summary of cross compliance standards.

Cross compliance measures were introduced in 2005 with reform of the Common Agricultural Policy (CAP). Landowners who are in receipt of Single Farm Payment (SFP) and certain other grant schemes payments have an obligation to maintain land to meet Statutory Management Regulations (SMR) and Good Agricultural and Environment Condition (GAEC) standards.

Used in conjunction with Scottish Government's explanatory notes and guidance information on cross compliance, CcELIS explains each SMR and GAEC measure and highlights potential areas where breaches can occur.

CcELIS can help landowners avoid potential penalties by explaining the regulations in a clear and concise way, ensuring farm activities are carried out within the cross compliance rules.
