

Copac National, Academic, and Specialist Library Catalogue

Copac is a free online merged library catalogue where you can search:

- National library catalogues, many major academic libraries and specialist libraries

You can search Copac to find rare and unique materials in all formats, e.g. books, journals, electronic resources, music and multimedia materials such as DVDs.

To get hold of most materials, you can organise an inter-library loan through your local public or institution's library. For rare and specialist items you may need to arrange a visit.

Search Copac

To start searching Copac, go to: <http://copac.ac.uk>. Select the green 'Search Copac' button.

1. Enter your search terms into the search boxes provided, e.g.

- Title: “gods of management”
- Keyword: impressionists

Put speech marks around your search terms if you want to search for a phrase. (e.g. “gods of management”)

2. Click on ‘Search’

3. 'Main search' (2nd tab), gives you more search options.
 - You can narrow your search down by date, material type, language etc.
4. Search results
 - Your results are displayed as a set of 'Brief records'.
 - Click on the title of a book to go to the 'Full record' and you will see more details and find out which libraries have copies.

Login & Search Copac

You can now login to Copac. You can login using your institutional login or create your own login using one of the identity providers listed on the home page.

If you do choose to login then you will automatically save your search history, do a local library search, create online bibliographies and see the latest journal table of contents information.

For more details go to: <http://copac.ac.uk/>

Website: <http://copac.ac.uk>

Helpdesk Email: copac@mimas.ac.uk

Copac is a Mimas service funded by JISC, using records supplied by RLUK and other contributing libraries