

Livestock Services

SAC has a wide range of expertise, and provides independent and unbiased advice on all aspects of livestock production and housing. Agricultural consultants provide livestock services through your local SAC Consulting office with additional support from specialist livestock consultants. Technical support and financial management advice is available for beef & sheep, dairy, pigs, poultry and equine enterprises and includes:

- Benchmarking – technical and financial advice based on comparative analysis of your business and enterprise performance.
- Rationing – obtain optimum economic performance from rations to improve profitability and enhance animal welfare.
- Grassland Management – advice on fertiliser policy, low cost production systems, clover and grass varieties, and grazing systems.
- Animal Health & Welfare – advice on management and feeding systems, housing & health schemes to improve performance, fertility and enhance animal welfare.
- Housing – livestock handling and housing systems, waste handling and storage, parlour design and biosecurity plans.
- Marketing – issues relating to food safety, quality assurance, direct marketing and product development.

SAC also offers its Livestock Record Programs which provide a complete management package for cattle and sheep to help you meet all statutory recording and management requirements.
