Scottish Agricultural College

Open Days at SAC

Deciding on a course of study is an important choice. We encourage you to attend one of SAC's regular open days if possible – here are some of the reasons why:

Staff very helpful and approachable. A very useful day to answer my questions and to have another experience of the College. Thank you.
Ayr Campus

Excellent open day. Staff extremely informative, enthusiastic, and accommodating.
Aberdeen Campus

The open day has confirmed my thoughts of SAC being the place I wish to come to. The staff and facilities seem excellent and I look forward to applying to the college.
Ayr Campus

Friendly welcome. Lots of information, confirmed my choices. Lovely area. Great presentation. Thank you very much.
Aberdeen Campus

A thoroughly enjoyable and informative afternoon. Well done. Great relaxed style but at the same time most professional. Thank you to all concerned.
Aberdeen Campus

Very approachable, friendly staff. We were made to feel very welcome.
Aberdeen Campus

Staff very friendly, was a very relaxed and informative presentation. Will definitely consider studying here. Was particularly good to get point of view from students studying here.
Edinburgh Campus

Very informative & lots of support. Lots of information about the course & helpful info about funding and entry.
Ayr Campus

I enjoyed the whole day and found out a whole lot more information than first envisaged. I am confident that my daughter would enjoy her time here. The staff are very friendly and helpful. Thank you very much for your hospitality.
Edinburgh Campus

Wasn't sure what to expect. I thought I would be in and out and none the wiser. Thoroughly enjoyed the experience. Very informative in a relaxed and informal manner.
Ayr Campus

Very enjoyable day at the College, very friendly and informative. An overall convincing experience for the prospective student.
